

Dementia and Fall Risk Management: An Inter-professional Approach

Presenters: Jeanne Copeland, M.S., CCC-SLP & Alyssa Thrush, DPT, GCS, CEEAA

Contributing Author: Diane Dismukes, OTR

Friday, October 4th, 2018, 8:30 am – 10:00 am

Thought-provoking questions

- What are roles of the SLP when caring for residents with dementia who have experienced a fall?
- Why is it important to have a comprehensive understanding of a person with dementia’s cognitive-communication skills and abilities when working to prevent future falls?
- What are the components of a comprehensive Fall Risk Management Program?

Interprofessional Practice

Interprofessional Practice

INTERPROFESSIONAL PRACTICE AND COMMUNICATION

<https://www.asha.org/Practice/Interprofessional-Education-Practice/>

Learning

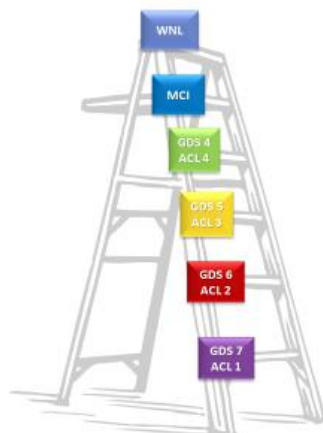

Each other

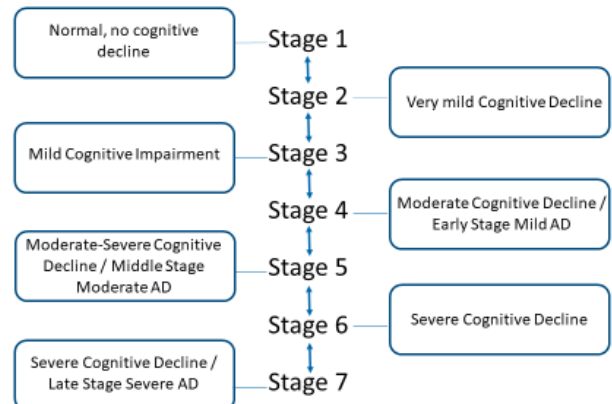

Genesis
Alfred Services

Developing a Cognitive Framework for Persons with Dementia

Dementia Staging

Crosswalk: GDS & Alzheimer’s Association

Genesis
Alfred Services

